

Pacaso Launches Innovative Luxury Second Home Co-ownership Platform in Santa Barbara, California

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Nov. 24, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Pacaso, the leading real estate platform that helps people buy and co-own a luxury second home, today announced that it has expanded its service to Santa Barbara, California. The company has begun hiring a regional team and is working with a variety of local businesses to support its operations.

"We're thrilled to be expanding our service into Santa Barbara," said Pacaso CEO and co-founder, Austin Allison. "Known for its beautiful beaches and gorgeous Mediterranean-style homes, along with the backdrop of the Santa Ynez Mountains, Santa Barbara has long been a dream destination for buyers. However, many are left waiting on the sidelines due to escalating prices and a lack of homes for sale. With Pacaso, people looking to purchase a second home here now have a new solution. A small group of families can up-level their buying power through co-ownership of a luxury home. Not only does this make more efficient use of housing stock, but it also redirects second home buyers away from the mid-tier market, freeing up that inventory for local primary homebuyers."

"Working with the Pacaso has been a pleasure, and it's obvious to me that the Pacaso team has a passion for their business, and goes above and beyond for their customers," said Sotheby's International real estate agent Tyler Mearce. "Pacaso brings something new to the table: they only purchase luxury homes in second home destinations, and because they offer up to eight shares of ownership per home, their model actually helps increase inventory in the area."

Pacaso partners with all interested real estate agents and brokerages in markets where it operates. Real estate agents representing buyers who purchase a share of a Pacaso home receive a 3% referral commission in addition to 500 RSUs of Pacaso stock as a referral equity bonus.
