

Pacaso Wins Platinum in the 2021 TITAN Property Awards

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Pacaso, the leading real estate platform that helps people buy and co-own a luxury second home, today announced that the company has been named a Platinum Real Estate award winner in the 2021 TITAN Property Awards and named a Rising Star.

Founded in October 2020, Pacaso became the fastest U.S. company to reach Unicorn status in March 2021 and has received over $200 million in funding to date. Pacaso modernizes the decades-old practice of co-ownership by creating a platform that streamlines the process of buying, owning, and selling a luxury second home. Pacaso's remote-first workforce of more than 128 employees now spans 25 states and six countries. As Pacaso continues to expand into new U.S. markets as well as internationally, the company is focused on growing its team of passionate individuals to keep up with the high demand of second-home ownership in both domestic and international locations. "We are thrilled to achieve the TITAN Platinum Real Estate award and be named a Rising Star," said Austin Allison, CEO, and co-founder of Pacaso. "Pacaso is providing consumers with a more sustainable way to own a second home in today's market. With Pacaso, second homes don't sit empty, and our model actually helps create new inventory through co-ownership of luxury homes. Being named a TITAN award winner and real estate rising star reiterates our mission to modernize second home ownership all while making it more accessible to a more diverse group of people."
