

Pacaso Introduces Infinity, an Invitation-Only Home Exchange for the World's Most Extraordinary Homes

A discreet global exchange for owners of exceptional second homes in highly sought-after destinations from St. Barths to Tuscany

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Pacaso, the modern co-ownership platform redefining luxury second-home ownership and access, today announced the launch of Infinity by Pacaso, an invitation-only home exchange created for a select group of second-home owners who value design, discretion, and trust as much as location—and who expect the same standards from those they exchange with.

Infinity is designed for a rare kind of homeowner: an owner of a remarkable, $5M–$20M residence in a coveted destination who understands the care, intention, and trust such a home requires. By uniting members with truly exceptional homes, Infinity forms a highly curated global community where exchanges are rooted in shared standards, mutual respect, and confidence.

Every home and every homeowner is personally vetted before being welcomed into Infinity. Using its own proprietary technology, Pacaso manages the home-swapping experience thoughtfully and discreetly—handling listing, scheduling, and more—so homeowners can swap with ease and confidence, and without any complexity, uncertainty, or compromise. The result is a private, global exchange that feels curated, thoughtful, and unlocks truly special experiences for owners that are inaccessible any other way.

"My perspective on second-home ownership changed after my family exchanged homes with another family. It felt less like travel and more like being welcomed into someone else's life," said Austin Allison, CEO and co-founder of Pacaso. "That experience revealed how many extraordinary homes sit unused—not for lack of desire, but because there's never been a trusted way to exchange them with like-minded owners. Infinity brings that idea to life: a private exchange where exceptional homes unlock exceptional stays."

A Curated Global Exchange

For a $100K one-time initiation fee, Infinity offers 10 years of access to swap stays within a growing portfolio of distinctive homes in the world's most desirable destinations.

Homes are selected for their architecture, location, character, and management, and are presented with the same attention to detail expected in an exchange of this caliber. Membership is intentionally limited, ensuring every exchange meets the highest standards of quality, care, and discretion.

Destinations currently available include:

- St. Barths, British Virgin Islands
- Tuscany, Italy
- Mexico City, Mexico
- Ibiza, Spain
- Careyes, Mexico
- New York City
- Verbier, Switzerland
- Paris, France

Additional locations will be added weekly.

Built on Pacaso's Trusted Foundation

Infinity builds on Pacaso's proven expertise in facilitating trusted home exchanges, rooted in the company's popular Global Swap program, which enables Pacaso co-owners to exchange homes with each other as a benefit of ownership.

Infinity is reserved for a distinct tier of whole homeowners—invitation-only, personally vetted, and united by a shared standard of exceptional homes and thoughtful exchange.
